

HOME GUARD

The War Cabinet of the New Zealand Government approved the setting up of a Home Guard on 2 August 1940, and it was gazetted on 17 August 1940.

On 2 October 1940, the "Ashburton Guardian" announced that the Home Guard forms of enrolment had arrived in Ashburton that day, and the following day an article on the home Guard organisation appeared.

On 4 October it was announced that the Ashburton County Council would be holding meetings in each riding to set up the necessary committees, and on 5 October, the Guardian reported the first of these meetings held at Eiffelton.

From October until the end of December 1940, the "Guardian" mentions units in Ashburton, Methven-Highbank, Wakanui, Staveley-Springburn-Bushside, Mt. Somers, Winchmore, Lagmhor-Westerfield, Rakaia, Wakanui, Hinds, Chertsey, Longbeach and Lismore-Maronon being set up. Some other areas appear to have also set up units between January and March 1941

There are various reports of the local Home Guard units in 'Guardian' over the years it was in operation, but rarely is there any mention of the names of the men involved, apart from unit commanders.

On 13 December 1943, the Government announced that there would be no further parades for the home Guard, effectively bringing the organisation to a close.

A table of enroements around New Zealand printed in The Home Front by Nancy Taylor has the following figures for Ashburton:-

As at 20 November 1940 – 236

As at 7 December 1940 – 950

As at 31 January 1941 – 1400

As at 28 February 1941 – 1469

As at 31 March 1941 – 1638

Going by these figures, the photocopied information in the folders covers approximately half the men who belonged to Home Guard units in this district.

The number against each name in the index, relates to the number written in the top right corner of each page.
